CORA SMITH'S SURPRISING PLEAD Pleaded Guilty to Poisoning Her Father

DES MOINES, April 23 .- In the district court Cora Smith, arrested in Omaha a month ago, pleaded guilty to poisoning her father a year ago. Betsv Smith Cora's mother, is now in the penitentiary serving a life sentence. Cora will be sent up for life during the coming week. Her action was a complete surprise, and appears to knock the pins from under the theory that she made the confession in Omaha to shield her mother and get a new trial for her. It is expected the grand jury will now indict Mrs. Leaderer Scoville, the sister of Mrs. Betsy Smith, as another one of the gang. There are three men in the gang, who so far have escaped prosecu-

EXCITEMENT AMONG CATTLEMEN.

Caused by a Carload of Cattle Shipped to Eureka, Kan., From Arizona. KANSAS CITY, April 22. - A special to the Times from Eureka, Kan., says: Fresh excitement has been caused among cattlemen here by the arrival of a carload of cattle from San Simon, Ari., which is north of the quarantine line, but it is believed that at least : part of them are from old Mexico and have been exposed to splenetic fever. The Greenwood Cattlemen's associa tion held a big meeting here and prevailed upon Sheriff Smith to seize the cattle and place them in temporary quarantine pending the action of the live stock sanitary commissioners, who were communicated with. Chairman Johnson has arrived. He found the town filled with angry cattlemen, many of whom are aroused and all are deter mined to protect their herds against the danger of Texas fever. The cattlemen threaten to use force if it shall be necessary to prevent the cattle being pastured in this vicinity.

Beatrice Harradan Complains. SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 22.—Be atrice Harradan, author of "Ships That Pass In the Night," complains of piracy by American publishers. "They have taken five of my stories," she said, "and published them separately in different volumes, each being supplemented with stories of others, and they sell each book as by Beatrice Harradan. It is too bad, and I have no redress but to go to law, which means endless worry."

Chunks of Free Gold. SANTA FE. N. M., April 22.-Chris Yeager, a well known miner from the Cochiti district, reports that a remarkable strike was made in the lower levels of the Lone Star mine owned by Denver people. As to whether or not Beck's arrest is the keynote of a vigorous campaign to be waged against prominent violators of the Edmunds-Tucker law it is impossible to say, but it is not likely, as under present conditions such a campaign would in all probability defeat statehood and aggravate the present unsettled state of affairs in the territory.

> THREE UTAH RANCHMEN MURDERED. Mystery Surrounding a Remarkable Cas

Suddenly Cleared Up. SALT LAKE, April 22.—The mystery was placed under a $1,000 bond. He young men, who lived in the vicinity of Utah lake, near Lehi, Ut., is gradually being cleared up. Albert Hayes, Andrew Johnson and Alfred Neilson had been living at Pelican Point for some time, but were ejected about two months ago on a suit brought by Oliver Slade. The three men were missed some time ago, and on Monday last the body of Ha yes was found near the lake shore. Death had been caused by two gunshot wounds. Late Saturday the bodies of Johnson and Neilson were found. The bodies were found in the lake on a wagon and were weighted down. The bodies presented a sickening sight. The murders probably occurred in February. The theory is that the men were murdered in the cabin during the night and thrown into the lake, as the bodies were nearly undressed when found. The gunshot wounds seem to have been made with a 44-caliber rifle. Suspicion, it is said, points to H. H. Hayes, stepfather of one of the murdered men, and a son of his who is missing. Other theories are advanced, but have no motive to support them. The country surrounding the ranch is wild and broken, and has been the scene of many tragedies between the Indians and early settlers. The coroner's jury examined the bodies and will continue the investigation at Lehigh. The excitement runs high and especially among the ranchmen in the vicinity of the murders. Some arrests are expected. More Than a Million Trout. CHEYENNE, April 22.—State Fish Commissioner Schniter estimates that the state hatchery at Laramie will propagate about 800,000 trout this season. The last legislature established branch hatcheries at Sundance and Sheridan, in the northern part of the state. The commissioner states that they will add

200,000 more to the output. Wolf Hunting on a Systematic Plan. NEWCASTLE, Wy., April 22.-Wolf hunting on a systematic plan has been commenced by the Standard Cattle company on the Belle Fourche river. Hebrew Workmen Want Higher Wages. New York, April 22.-The rise in the price of beef has not deterred the workmen employed in the slaughter houses of this city from calling for increased wages and other concessions from their employers. There was held last night a mass meeting of the Hebrew employes. Twenty-five were in attendance. Their meeting was private, and the only man present who could speak English explained to a reporter that the men want to have their wages paid weekly instead of monthly, their wages increased considerably, their working hours reduced from 18 to 12 hours a day and beef packed in refrigerators. KROXVILLE, April 22.-The Royal Coke and Coal company of Knoxville whose 400 miners are out on a strike at Coal Creek, applied to the United States for a receiver, and George C. Heck of this city, manager of the company, was appointed as receiver. This action is taken in order to get the protection of

DAMAGED BY DYNAMITE.

Attempt Made to Blow Up an East Louis Building. St. Louis, April 22.—At an early hour this morning an attempt was made to blow up the residence of Herman Knopke in East St. Louis. Dynamite was used, and the front of the house was badly wrecked and all the windows shattered, and a big hole was blown through the roof. That the wreck was the work of some striking employe of accepted explanation of the crime, for one of the house's occupants was J. E. Jones, superintendent of the roller mills, who had charge of the importation of men to take the places of strikers. Everyone in Knopke's house had retired shortly before midnight save A. L. Perry, a locomotive fireman employed in the bridge yards. All those in bed were thrown out but not one was injured. The authorities have no clew as to the perpetrators of the deed.

Largest Circulation in Nebraska.

It isn't much wonder that the State Journal now has the largest circulation in Nebraska. It has reduced its price to 65 cents a month with Sunday, or 50 cents without Sunday; it has been spending more money for Nebraska news than any other paper; it has on its staff such men as Bixby, Walt Mason, and court at Chattanooga Saturday night Annin.
